

S. L. ELKS TO VISIT IN OGDEN

They Will Bring Entertainers for Big Time at Local Home

Between 50 and 100 members of Salt Lake lodge No. 85, B. P. O. Elks, will journey to Ogden tomorrow evening to pay a fraternal visit to Ogden lodge, according to an announcement made today by Charles P. Carlson, exalted ruler of Ogden lodge.

The Salt Lake delegation will be accompanied by a group of entertainers and will stage some interesting stunts for the benefit of their Ogden fraternal brothers.

Exalted Ruler Carlson says he expects a large gathering of Ogden members to be on hand to greet and entertain the Salt Lake delegation.

A buffet luncheon will be served in the club after the lodge session.

The Salt Lake delegation will travel to and from Salt Lake in automobiles.

L. D. S. LEADERS TO TALK HERE

President Grant to Speak on Weber Gym at Alumni Banquet

Adam S. Bennion, superintendent of the L. D. S. church schools will be the toastmaster at the Weber Normal college alumni banquet Thursday evening. The spread will be laid in especially decorated tables in the form of a block "W" in the college auditorium. Opening ceremonies will take place at 7:30 o'clock.

Weber alumni expect to entertain more than 600 persons. The Weber gymnasium will be the chief topic of the evening, but future plans for Weber college will be discussed.

The speakers will include the high church authorities. Among them will be President Heber J. Grant, Apostles Anthony W. Ivins and David O. McKay.

Just what Ogden can expect for the Weber gym this summer is expected to be spoken by these officials.

Members of the alumni, dramatic readers of prominence in the state, will take part, including Minnie Moore Brown, Blanch Kendall McKee and T. Earl Pardoe of the Brigham Young university.

CHIROPRACTOR PASSES AWAY

Robert J. Schultz, Ogden Chiropractor, died yesterday at a local hospital after a few days' illness. He was born in Minneapolis, Minn., June 20, 1872 and for the past 29 years had made his residence in Ogden with the exception of a short stay at Enterprise, Utah, and other southern towns. He was one of the first chiropractors to practice in Ogden. His residence has been 2356 Washington avenue. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Myrtle Brown Schultz, three daughters, Mrs. Horace Lewis, of Kemmerer, Wyo., Mina and Dorothy Schultz, of Ogden, and a son, Theodore G. Schultz, of Salt Lake. The body is at Kirkendall's. Funeral services will be announced later.

MILK INSPECTOR ASSUMES DUTIES

Chris A. Christensen, newly appointed city milk inspector assumed his duties this morning in the city hall, succeeding John Felt, who has held the office for the last three years. Mr. Christensen was formerly a member of the teaching staff in the dairy department of the Utah Agricultural college and official state milk tester. Later he was employed by the firm of Blackman & Griffin of Ogden.

Mr. Felt recently resigned his position and will become connected with the dairy business in Ogden.

WEBER STAKE TO BE SPLIT

President Grant Will Preside at Division Next Sunday

A special conference of the Weber stake is called by President Heber J. Grant for Sunday, May 21, in the Ogden tabernacle at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. A special meeting of the Melchizedek priesthood will be held in the tabernacle Saturday at 2 p. m. This meeting is for the priesthood only. Members of other stakes are not invited to attend as the business is particularly for the Weber stake.

The purpose of the special conference is to consider the proposal to divide the Weber stake and to reorganize the stake presidency. It is thought the dividing line will be Washington avenue, with all the wards on the east side forming the Weber stake and all wards on the west side forming a new stake for which a name has not been announced.

In the event the division is made the Weber stake will comprise the Fifth, Ninth, Twelfth, Fourteenth, South Weber and Ninth wards. The proposed new stake will comprise the Second, Eleventh, First, Riverdale, Roy, Clinton, Hooper, and Kanabville wards. As at present organized, the Weber stake has a population of approximately 12,000 members.

Until about 14 years ago the entire county was included in the Weber stake. A division was made, creating two new stakes, known as the Ogden and North Weber stakes. At the quarterly conference of the Ogden stake, yesterday, President Grant commented upon the rapid growth of the Weber stake and announced he would be here next Sunday for the purpose of dividing the stake.

Sheriff's Speed Cop Now on Job; Theobald Named

Speeders watch your step—or rather, your speedometer.

This noon the red motorcycle of the sheriff's department was taken from winter storage, shined up and straddled by George Theobald who this morning was appointed motorcycle deputy on county roads by the board of county commissioners. The recommendation for Mr. Theobald's appointment was made by Sheriff Richard Pinecock.

From now on, during the summer months, all county highways will be patrolled by the officer and speeders and traffic violators will be haled in to face the judge. The county motorcycle is guaranteed by the manufacturer to attain a speed of 50 miles an hour, so there is very little chance of speeders out-distancing it.

Particular attention will be paid to speeding and traffic violations in Ogden canyon during the summer months, it is said.

Mr. Theobald was formerly an automobile mechanic with the Cheesman Automobile company.

G. A. R. POST CALLS MEETING

A special business meeting of the G. A. R. post has been called for 2 p. m. Wednesday by M. M. Clothier, the commander. The meeting will be held in the post hall and arrangements for the Memorial day observance will be taken up. Mr. Clothier said.

A full attendance of the post is necessary, said Mr. Clothier, as special business of importance is to come before the veterans.

ART COLLECTION ON DISPLAY AT COLLEGE

(Special Dispatch) LOGAN, May 15.—An exceptional collection of 42 mounted drawings is on exhibition in the art department of the Utah Agricultural college. This exhibition of drawings includes characteristic examples of work from a few of the 27 high schools of New York City and has been loaned to the college by the American Federation of Art.

All "academic" pupils in these schools are required to study design for two hours each week during their first year of high school and object drawing for two periods in the second year. The chief aim of these courses is to develop individual expression and good technique.

The display will be opened for the general public until May 17. Beginning Saturday, May 20, a collection of block paintings will be on exhibition at the U. A. C. art rooms. The work to be shown is that of Miss Helen Hyde, one of America's foremost craftsmen. The collection will also be sent by the American Federation of Art, and will remain at the college until June 5.

CHURCH HEADS TALK IN OGDEN

Reverence for Laws of God and Man Urged By Conference Speakers

President Heber J. Grant, Bishop Charles W. Nibley, President Mark Austin of Fremont stake, Axel Madison of the L. D. S. bureau of information at Salt Lake, B. F. Grant, Dr. John H. Taylor of the M. L. A. general board, and Robert L. Judd of the Deseret Sunday school board, were speakers at the Ogden stake quarterly conference held in the tabernacle, Sunday. Congregations filling the tabernacle to overflowing, attended both sessions.

President Thomas R. McKay presided, assisted by his counselors, John Hall and S. G. Dye. The tabernacle choir under the direction of Lester G. Hinchcliff, gave musical programs at both sessions.

Addresses and musical selections were in keeping with the commemoration of the restoration of the Aaronic priesthood, and Mothers' day. A feature of the morning session was the dramatic reading, "The Mother of Christ" by Mrs. Bertha Eccles Wright.

President Grant said he would appreciate not being referred to as a prophet of God. He said there was but one prophet, seer and revelator in the present age and that was Joseph Smith. He did not wish to be misunderstood or to convey the idea that Brigham Young, John Taylor, Wilford Woodruff, Lorenzo Snow or Joseph F. Smith, were not prophets; neither did he wish to deny that God had seen fit to call him to preside over the church, but in order to prevent the too frequent repetition of the sacred title, he desired to be called President Grant and not the prophet of God. He said apostles should be called elders.

"EDUCATIONALLY CRAZY" President Grant said he thought "we were going nearly educationally crazy. Millions of dollars are being spent to educate the brain, but it was almost impossible to get a dollar to keep the body alive. Large sums were being spent on gymnasiums but it was impossible to get a dollar legally to teach faith in the schools." He thought it strange that a prayer is offered in the United States senate, but prayers are forbidden in the schools. He thought it was time to get rid of men who are opposed to religious training in the schools.

President Grant urged obedience to the laws of the land as well as to the laws of God. The laws of the land prohibited plural marriages and this law must be obeyed by the church members. He declared that there was no place in all the world where the priesthood of the church could perform plural marriages and he wanted this fact to be clearly understood. All who taught and practiced plural marriages were living in disobedience to the laws of the church, he said.

TEMPLE MARRIAGES Teaching young people the necessity of marriage in the temples was emphasized by President Grant. He said parents should discourage their children from keeping company with those who were not of the faith and it was the duty of parents to teach their children the proper form of marriage or the condemnation would be upon their heads.

Bishop Nibley, as head of the Aaronic priesthood, directed his remarks especially to the large gathering of boys at the conference. He referred to the restoration of the priesthood 93 years ago and advised the boys that the priesthood was first and foremost and their quorum activities must not take second place to scout work. The priesthood stands first in the church and the auxiliary organizations were helpers and governments operating under the direction of the priesthood.

"Every member a tiller" is a slogan recently adopted by the church, Bishop Nibley said, and urged a more exact observance of this law. He said those who were faithful in tithes and offerings would not be burned on the dreadful day of the Lord.

CHANGE IN SCHOOLING Bishop Nibley said the standards for education, schools and the increase of knowledge, but he thought the country was school crazy. He said the schools taught children about almost everything, but failed to teach them to do anything. He thought it better for a boy to know how to plant a row of potatoes, and for a girl to know how to make a bowl of good soup, than to know the distance from the earth to the sun.

President Dye in reading the quarterly report called attention to the fact that since the last conference of the 13 marriages only one had been performed in the temple. Five of the marriages he reported were with non-members of the church. He said, "We sound the warning to parents who have children in Zion that the altar he upon the heads of the parents if they fail to teach their children the principles of the gospel."

RESPECT FOR LAWS President McKay urged parents to create in the hearts of their children a greater reverence for laws of God and man. "If disrespect for the laws of the land continue, conditions in this country will become as bad as in Russia. The prohibition of a cigar law should be obeyed, even if we don't like them. If officers fail in their duty they will not be sustained when the proper time comes."

Each of the other speakers expressed his pleasure at visiting the stake and bore strong testimonies to the divinity of the mission of Joseph Smith. They declared that the one

AUTHOR AND WRITER TO TEACH AT A. C.

(Special Dispatch) LOGAN, May 15.—Dr. Garland Greever, eminent author and writer has been appointed professor of English at the Utah Agricultural college to teach one year during the absence of Prof. Alvin Peterson, according to an announcement just issued by President E. G. Peterson. Dr. Greever has a degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Harvard university. He received the degree of A. B. from Missouri university and the A. M. degree from Trinity college, North Carolina.

Dr. Greever has been head of the department of English at Mammoth university and was at one time instructor at Washington and Lee university and the University of Arkansas.

Among some of the important works of Dr. Greever which have made him nationally known as a writer and author is the book entitled, "Century Handbook of Writing." This publication is used widely as a text and a reference in College English courses at various institutions. Because of the instant success of the "Century Handbook of Writing" the author was urged to undertake other writings and as result he has now several years' work ahead of him.

The courses that Dr. Greever will teach will be "Advanced Writing," "Shakespeare," the "Modern Drama," and probably "Literature for Children" or "World Masterpieces."

BIG REHEARSAL ON THURSDAY

Choir and Orchestra to Give Finishing Touches to "Creation"

The Ogden tabernacle choir and symphony orchestra will hold a "dress rehearsal" Thursday evening in the second ward hall in connection with the performance on Friday, May 25, of Haydn's "Creation."

Thursday rehearsal will be held in the second ward because there is a reference in College English courses at various institutions. Because of the instant success of the "Century Handbook of Writing" the author was urged to undertake other writings and as result he has now several years' work ahead of him.

The courses that Dr. Greever will teach will be "Advanced Writing," "Shakespeare," the "Modern Drama," and probably "Literature for Children" or "World Masterpieces."

For several weeks Lester Hinchcliff, the director, has rehearsed the orchestra on Wednesday evenings and the choir on Thursday evenings. The entire oratorio will be run through Thursday evening.

Receipts from the sale of tickets to the oratorio will go into the fund for the construction of the Weber gymnasium.

OGDEN HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The annual spring inspection of the Ogden R. O. T. C. unit was made Friday morning by Colonel Falls who expressed himself as well pleased with the showing made. Colonel Falls also complimented the band on its appearance and performance, stating that he had never seen its equal in a Junior R. O. T. C. unit. Sergeant Newell Grou, high gun in the recent rifle match, was introduced to Colonel Falls who congratulated him and expressed the hope that he would continue in his present form next year.

Our Alma Mater was given another boost, now of Salt Lake by some of its students. Mayme Wright, first place in the girls' reading contest and Maxon Mellinger first in the boys' reading contest. In the poster contest Marion Cross won first place and Lytle Chase, second. Zinn qualified in the 100-yard dash and Smith in the hurdles. Bill Cox broke the state record in the shot out and was first in the discus. Cox ran high point in the present form next year.

The University of Utah Glee club will give a concert at the Tabernacle Friday evening, May 19. A special rate will be given to high school students.

The spring pageant given Thursday evening was a huge success, the proceeds amounting to $150, which will be turned into the student body fund.

The T. N. T. club will indulge in high jinx Thursday evening. A block section has been received at Pan-lages, after which a dancing party and social will be enjoyed. The club is also going to give an adios dance Friday, May 19. This is the last dance of the year. All "stags" and "stagettes" will be charged the same as if they had partners. For the benefit of Lynch and Wolter. "Whitie" Wheelwright will lend his presence to the occasion.

STEAL FLOWERS FOR BURIAL PLOTS

Mrs. H. J. Whitney, 593 Twelfth street, reported to the police Sunday evening that thieves had stolen a number of pansy and tulip plants from her automobile in the city cemetery yesterday. She had taken the plants to place on burial plots.
